

Will you be helped by surgery?

It is impossible to tell exactly what result you will get from surgery. However, doctors do know what happened to other people just like you.

People like you have a 50% chance of having their symptoms helped by surgery.

A 50% chance means in the past, when doctors operated on 100 people like you, about 50 of them were helped by surgery.

